

The 2023 USAPEEC Winter Meeting is only a week away. Judging by the response, members can't wait.

This year's attendance is expected to exceed last year's with nearly 250 registrations on the books. And 28 members have purchased sponsorships for the program, totaling $125,000. The meeting, set for Dec. 11-13 at the Fairmont Georgetown hotel in Washington, is certain to reward those who come.

They will hear from 26 speakers, including Chief Agricultural Negotiator in the Office of the United States Trade Representative Doug McKalip, on topics ranging including global marketing, the supply chain, HPAI, and international trade relations, and from former NASA astronaut Mike Massimino who will deliver a special keynote address.

There will also be a meeting of the Trade Policy Task Force and the International Marketing Forum as well as the annual holiday reception.

It's a week that's sure to please, as the accompanying agenda shows.
